As preparations are being made for the 2019 ARC Conference Sessions we would like to share some highlights.

1. Anyone who is not a delegate is invited to attend all or part of the sessions. We do ask that you register as a guest though so we have an accurate count for seating and meals.

2. Cost to attend the sessions - None.

3. Conference officially begins Friday May 17th. Registration begins at Noon and roll call, worship & feet washing will begin at 1:00 P.M. followed by sessions on Church Safety & Suicide Prevention and sessions led by Pastor Karl Vaters.

4. Supper on Friday will be provided by the Lillyville Church of God.

5. Evening worship will begin at 7:30 P.M. with guest speaker, Pastor Karl Vaters.

6. Sessions will resume Saturday morning - doors open and registration begins at 8:30 A.M. followed by devotions and communion at 9:00 A.M.

7. Lunch on Saturday will be provided by the Lillyville Church of God.

8. Conference Sessions will conclude following the 4:00 P.M. Credentialing & Ordination Service on Saturday.

9. Lillyville Church and the ARC are offering free childcare from 1-5 on Friday and 9-5 on Saturday.

10. If you are making hotel reservations with the Marriott Courtyard Pittsburgh North/Cranberry Woods Hotel the deadline to receive the special rate of $99.95 is May 1st. You must use the reservation code "ARC CGGC May 2019" to get the special rate.

11. Pastors, please remember - if you cannot attend the sessions in their entirety due to sickness, death, or circumstances beyond your control (ARC Constitution, Article XIV, - Accountability of Pastors, Section 14.04), you must submit a written excuse to the conference clerk, Pastor Jim Monticue.

Registration deadline is March 31st so get your registrations in now!
